

HOW i Traveled KASHMIR

Day 1

-Reach udhampur by train from delhi.

-Take Local bus 30/- to reach the highway.

-Take bus to banihal approx 170/- ..but if they are taking 100rs then they are not dropping you at banihal ..they will drop you somewhere but don't worry if they r dropping you somewhere you can always take a bus from there in 70/- and reach banihal bus stand.

But if you want to avoid this chaos .you can go from traveller 250rs from the highway.

-Then if they drop you at bus stand of banihal ..walk 2-3 km ..enjoy the scenic view and people are so welcoming here you can even go to their home and have food..but at your own risk 😊

-Take a train ticket of 20rs from banihal to sringar .yeah if you got lucky then you can witness that beautiful train route which you have seen in reels ..and for that I would suggest you to go kashmir in end of December to mid January..they have season called something chillan.

When they witness heavy snowfall

-From sringar railway station you have to take a shared taxi to lal chowk area which is a main area or you can also find hotels at dal gate chowk it will cost you around 100/-

When you enter in Srinagar .you r going to be bankrupt but I will tell you how to wander at cheap. I m here to save you

-Take hotel in 1100-1200. Not so good but yess these are nice budget friendly but if you're solo go for hostel options - zostel, moustache or even houseboats they might be a bit costly for you but they will make your trip unforgettable.
